

Bladder Cancer

Depending on the stage, bladder cancer may be treated with a simple surgical procedure, radiation, chemotherapy, removal of the bladder or a combination of these treatments.

STAGE 1:
Tumor has formed in the lining of the bladder and may have invaded the connective tissue. A simple surgical procedure, transurethral resection of the bladder tumor (TURBT), may be used to remove the cancer.